AAGP
Australian Association of Group Psychotherapists

the group can achieve more than the sum of its parts

AAGP Conference Auckland March 2026

28 March Saturday 9:30am – 5:30pm
29 March Sunday 9:00am – 12:30pm

Exploring our differences:

From group cohesion to coherency.

Group cohesion helps group members feel a sense of safety and belonging. Group coherency allows the space for individual differences to emerge. The conference programme will cover a combination of theory, clinical examples and experiential group sessions.

Presenters:

Dr Margot Solomon
Anel Grobler
Dr Peter Hengstberger

Conference Fee (numbers are limited to 30)

$AU250 AAGP Members & Health Professionals
$AU150 subsidised- Please contact Anel on anel.grobler@gmail.com if you find the fees prohibitive. 7 subsidised places are available – priority will be given if this is your first AAGP conference.
