VENUE: The Powerhouse - River Room

119 Lamington Street, New Farm QLD 4005

"Brisbane Powerhouse; a pre-war industrial power station turned iconic arts centre,... sits along the Brisbane River, and New Farm Park is our backyard."

Warren Ward is Director of the Queensland Eating Disorders Service, Associate Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Queensland, and a late-onset writer of narrative nonfiction about philosophy, culture and the history of ideas. In 2017 he won a New Philosopher Writers' Award.

Having graduated from QUT drama in 1986, Paul Bishop has worked constantly on radio, film, television and theatre. He has worked with every major performing arts theatre company throughout Australia. He was elected as a Redland City Counsellor in 2012 and again in 2016. He has most recently appeared in the award winning play, "Poison".

Peter Hengstberger is a Consultant Psychiatrist and Psychoanalytic Psychotherapist in full time private practice. He is a member of the Faculty of Psychotherapy of RANZCP, QPPA and AAGP. He is a member of the training committees of the QPPA and AAGP. He has a longstanding interest in art and music.

This event will be of interest to anyone working with groups of people in a wide variety of settings. All are welcome.
